BECOME IMMORTAL.

VUÉLVETE INMORTAL.

You will never live
this moment again.

Many new ones will come, but not this one.

The image you choose to leave behind is in your control.

To capture your energy, your essence and your power requires more than a mobile phone. It takes an artist.

BECOME IMMORTAL.

STEPHEN RASMUSSEN

A Canadian photographer based in Madrid, he uses his lens as the primary tool for connecting with others. As a life long artist, he specializes in the capturing the essence of high performers. His own exploration in performing arts, including acting, standup comedy and martial arts, provides him with a vast repertoire of approaches which allow him to achieve a deep connection with his subjects. Along with his background in fashion and advertising, he brings both a technical precision along with a sense of style and elegance.

"Beyond my passion for the exploration of light, shadow and texture, I seek that deep and often elusive feeling that exists just below the surface of an image."
